

Privacy Statement

Grant Street Wealth Management, LLC requires that you provide current and accurate financial and personal information. Grant Street Wealth Management will protect the information you have provided in a manner that is safe, secure, and professional. Grant Street Wealth Management and its employees are committed to protecting your privacy and to safeguarding that information.

Safeguarding Client Documents

We collect non-public client data in checklists, forms, in written notations, and in documentation provided to us by our clients for evaluation, registration, and licensing or related consulting services. We also create internal lists of such data. During regular business hours access to client records is monitored so that only those with approval may access the files. During hours in which the company is not in operation, client records are maintained in a locked facility and monitored by a security system.

No individual who is not so authorized shall obtain or seek to obtain personal and financial client information. No individual with authorization to access personal and financial client information shall share that information in any manner without specific consent of a firm principal. Failure to observe procedures regarding client and consumer privacy will result in discipline and may lead to termination.

Sharing Nonpublic Personal and Financial Information

Grant Street Wealth Management is committed to the protection and privacy of its clients' and consumers' personal and financial information. Grant Street Wealth Management will not share such information with any affiliated or unaffiliated third party except:

- When necessary to complete a transaction in a client account, such as with the clearing firm or account custodians;
- When required to maintain or service a client account;
- To resolve client disputes or inquiries;
- With persons acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of the client;
- With rating agencies, persons assessing compliance with industry standards, or to the attorneys, accountants and auditors of the firm;
- In connection with a sale or merger of Grant Street Wealth Management' business;
- To protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, identity theft, unauthorized transactions, claims or other liability;
- To comply with federal, state or local laws, rules and other applicable legal requirements;
- In connection with a written agreement to provide investment management or advisory services when the information is released for the sole purpose of providing the products or services covered by the agreement;
- In any circumstances with the client's instruction or consent; or
- Pursuant to any other exceptions enumerated in the California Information Privacy Act.

Opt-Out Provisions

It is not a policy of Grant Street Wealth Management to share nonpublic personal and financial information with affiliated or unaffiliated third parties except under the circumstances noted above. Since sharing under the circumstances noted above is necessary to service client accounts or is mandated by law, there are no allowances made for clients to opt out.
